The silence of the graveyard, where lies the corpse of Muslim ummah and their unity and brotherhood. As for Burmese Rohingya Muslims the writing is on the wall, no oil, no money, no state of their own and no monetary benefits to attract the Muslim governments and their media, so all they can do is to await the slaughter that shall come sooner or later.

One resolution in UN unanimously drafted by Islamic world could do the trick by putting diplomatic pressure on militant rulers of Burma but frankly who cares and who has got the time to avert the spice of life and think about poor Muslims of Burma.

بورما هي إحدى دول شرق آسيا وتقع على امتداد خليج البنغال وقد أكد الناشط البورمي محمد نصر أن مسلمي إقليم أراكان في دولة بورما، إحدى دول جنوب شرق آسيا، يتعرضون حالياً لأبشع حملة إبادة من قبل جماعة "الماغ" البوذية المتطرفة، مشيراً إلى أن عدد القتلى لا يمكن إحصاؤه.

The beautiful mountains of Arakan divide the state from central Burma and the beautiful plains of the state house a population of 800,000 |Rohingya Muslims who claim to be living on these shores for hundreds of years. A claim resolutely denied by the Military rulers of Burma and the Buddhist community as they believe that Rohingya population are descendants of Chittagong Bengalis and only moved to Burma in 1863. Even if the twisted version of the dictator party is accepted as correct still it has been a good 150 years since these people started living their lives in Burma. They are not considered citizens though and are not issued with passports or rights of citizenship by a government which derives its power from the Buddhist religious base. Over the last 70 years these Muslims have been given the rough end of the deal by British, Japanese and the Burmese governments resulting in a mass exodus to Bangladesh and Thailand. Situation changed dramatically when Bangladesh decided to seal her borders to these refugees as they are struggling with the sheer numbers and the thigh border guards let the ship of these refugees sink and the men and women aboard drown

A month ago three Muslim boys were accused of raping and killing a Buddhist girl and were arrested. One of them was reported to have killed himself while other two were sentenced to death after a trial of 4 days. The Muslim version of story varies from the state version as Muslim community argues that one of the boys fell in love with the Burmese girl and managed to flee with her, later to be captured and tortured to death in custody and the other two boys were innocent. Whichever version was correct didn't matter as the local Buddhist community attacked a bus killing 10 Muslims.

Military moved in after 30 Muslims deaths and within 2 days the death toll for Rohingya Muslims raised to 680 as the military and security forces of Burma led the Muslim hunting process which is continuing with no end in sight. UN or aid agencies are not allowed in |Rakhine and media organisations are banned as well. Any food or life saving supplies can not be given directly and have to go through the government aid agency. This leaves Muslims of Arakan helpless, hopeless and in a miserable plight awaiting torture, death and destruction on daily basis.

Slaughter of Muslims in Burma - June 2012

<http://www.zimbio.com/Aung+San+Suu+Kyi/articles/EvRIw2CPCI0/Slaughter+Muslims+Burma+June+2012>

After reading and watching helplessly the recent massacre of minority Burmese Muslims by the Buddhist majority, let not another hypocrite sing that phoney and repugnant 'song' about Buddhists being "peaceful." In June 2012, hundreds Burmese Muslims have been butchered, and many more injured and made homeless in Burma as a result religious intolerance by the Buddhist majority. The Burmese military government, far from trying to resolve the problem and protect the minority, has been silently conniving with the rioters by creating greater hardships for the Muslim minority.

The reason of this June 2012 riot is unknown except for the periodical outbursts of the Burmese Buddhists to show their might and vent their anger on the helpless minority. It is commonly accepted that the June 2012 massacre of Burmese Muslims was intentionally orchestrated by the rioters in collaboration with the government. Yet the world, including the UN, is conveniently silent. The brazenly hypocritical and unscrupulous woman, Aung San Suu Kyi, is very prompt at accusing the Burmese military of human rights violations when she is under house arrest. But she finds nothing wrong when the military helps the Buddhist mobs to murder the innocent Muslim minority of her country. As in India, anti-Muslim riots are nothing unusual in Burma. Violence in Burma against Muslims have been erupting periodically since the 1920s based simply on religious intolerance by the Buddhist majority. The Muslims of Burma mainly belong to the Arakan state in western Burma. They are known as Rohingya or Burmese Muslims. The term "Rohingya" has been derived from the Arabic word "Raham" meaning sympathy. Muslim settlements began being established in the Arakan province of Burma since the arrival of the Arabs in the 8th century. Presently about 800,000 Rohingya live in Burma.

The United Nations describes them as "one of the world's most persecuted minorities." Yet it has never bothered to help them. Religious freedom for Muslims in Burma has been systematically curbed. In the post 9/11 era, random accusations of "terrorism" against Muslims have become a common form of persecution and harassment by Burmese Buddhists. Burmese Government does not consider Rohingya Muslims as citizens and they are hated by the Buddhist majority. Rohingya Muslims in Burma have long demanded recognition as an indigenous ethnic group with full citizenship by birthright. But the Government regards them as illegal immigrants from neighboring Bangladesh and denies them citizenship. "Nobel Prize winner," Aung San Suu Kyi, does not consider Muslims as citizens. Speaking at London School of Economics meeting on June 2012 during her visit to the UK, she said "Rohingya Muslims should not be considered citizens." Later during her press conference at Downing Street, she did not condemn the killings of Rohingya Muslims taking place in Burma. Instead, she simply said that this "ethnic conflict should be investigated and dealt with wisdom." It wasn't just an insufficient response but a very shocking one from someone supposed to have won a "Noble Peace Prize."

The notorious master hypocrite and undercover CIA agent, Dalai Lama, continues to globe trot without mentioning a single word of the dangerously growing Buddhist intolerance in Burma, Thailand, Tibet and across the world. Such intolerance and persecution invariably result in resistance by the oppressed. Many Muslims have joined armed resistance groups, fighting for greater freedom in Burma. On June 3rd 2012, eight Muslims returning to Rangoon in a bus after visiting a Masjid in the Arakan province were attacked by a mob of hundreds of Buddhists and slaughtered brutally. An eye-witness reported that after the mass murder "the culprits were celebrating triumph spitting and tossing wine and alcohol on the dead bodies lying on the road." "These innocent people have been killed like animals," said Abu Tahay, of the National Democratic Party for Development, which represents the country's much-persecuted stateless Muslim Rohingya community. The Rohingya Muslims of Burma have continued to suffer from human rights violations under the Burmese junta since 1970s. Over the years thousands of Rohingya refugees have fled to neighboring countries like Thailand, Indonesia and Bangladesh etc. Even as refugees they have been facing hardships and have suffered persecution by the Thai government.

Continuity of Massacre of Muslims of Burma by Budhists more than 1000 Killed Yesterday – Please SHARE for the awakeni

In February 2009, a group of 5 boats packed with Burmese Rohingya Muslims were taken out and abandoned in the open sea by the Thai army. Four of these boats sank in a storm and one was washed ashore near the Indonesian islands. The few survivors who were rescued by Indonesian authorities told horrific stories of being captured and beaten by the Thai military and then abandoned at open sea. Being "peaceful" or "humble" (as claimed by their biased supporters) is a far cry concerning the Burmese Buddhists. Their vindictive temperament prowls for vendetta, waiting to use even the most insignificant occurrence as an excuse to perpetrate violence on Burmese Muslims. At any time, if there's some ethnic disturbance between Muslims and Buddhists/Hindus in any other country, the Burmese Buddhists waste no time going on a murderous spree killing the Muslim minority in Burma. If there is the slightest of trouble between Muslims and non-Muslims in Indonesia, it's taken as a pretext to kill Muslims in Burma by Buddhist mobs. The destruction of the statues in Bamiyan (Afghanistan), created an immediate excuse to commit violence against Muslims in Burma in 2001. The firebrand Buddhist monks demanded a Muslim masjid to be destroyed in retaliation. Mobs of Buddhists led by monks, vandalized Muslim-owned businesses and property in Burma, and attacked and killed Muslims in Muslim communities.

Gruesome images of murdered Rohingya Muslims in the recent June 2012 riots in Burma have been circulated on websites, resulting in protests in several Muslim countries and by various human rights activists around the world demanding justice & protection in Burma for the minority, but has fallen on deaf ears as usual, getting little or no coverage from mainstream news channels. PLEASE SEND THIS AROUND. THE WORLD HAS THE RIGHT TO KNOW THE TRUTH.

ومن حينها يتعرض المسلمون في بورما إلى كافة أنواع التضييق التنكيل، ففي عام 1942 تعرض المسلمون لمذبحة كبرى على يد البوذيين الماغ، راح ضحيتها أكثر من مئة ألف مسلم وشرد مئات الآلاف

Myanmar Muslims Massacre

In Burma, massacre of Muslims is being done ruthlessly and the world is silent. Do you not hear the deafening silence of the UN, so called world community and the snakes of SAFMA???

Would you believe that this genocide where over 20,000 Muslims have already been butchered, burnt, raped, drowned and murdered and nearly 100,000 thousand forced to leave their homes, has been triggered by a FALSE NEWS report released by a journalist! This is the sinister power of media that we are so familiar in Pakistan also.

Today, the world is silent on this Genocide. By Allah, we hold Burmese government responsible for this atrocity. Bangladesh has refused to allow these poorest Muslim refugees to enter the country. We ask Bangladeshis to raise their voice and help these brothers and sisters in faith. If you cannot help your brothers and sisters, at least recite fatiha for them!

Analysis of Myanmar Muslims Massacre

Posted on June 7, 2012 by kyawkyawoo

(The intention of writing this post is not to spread the hatred between different ethnic groups, races and religions of Myanmar. This weblog's name, "Words of Love," reflects the purpose which is to spread the love among all of us, all mankind. However when people start sowing hatred against any race or religion, I am obliged to seek the Truth and Justice. That is the reason I'm writing this post.) KyawKyaw Oo

On May 28th, a young lady was Murdered at Kyauk Ni Maw Village Rakhine State, Myanmar. It was a tragic and ugly event.

Barely one week after the tragic death of young lady, on 3rd of June, ten innocent Muslims were beaten to death by 300 angry mobs at Taung Goke, Rakhine State, about ten miles from where the alleged murder case had taken place. It was even worse because all these people were mercilessly butchered to death because of the instigation against Muslims initiated by a racist Rakhine news portal known as Narinjara news, followed by many local online news and journals.

Narinjara, a Rakhine newsportal reported the tragic murder case as a racial and religious crime by repeatedly accusing and posting the crime as being committed by "Muslim Kalars" ( Kalar is a derogatory word for Muslims of Myanmar similar to 'Nigger' to the black American in the US).

Instead of following the responsible journalist guidelines, the news portal directly and indirectly instigated hatred among different faiths of people living together for several years by using the word, 'Muslim Kalar' repeatedly.

Normally, the alleged culprits should be addressed as suspects, and their identity should be withheld until the court proceeding starts. The worse intentional mistake was when the accused names' were released together with their faith and race (Muslim Kalar) by the said news portal.

Planned Instigation of religious hatred and evidence

It was neither a mistake nor a coincidence. It was a planned instigation of hatred against Muslims in Myanmar. The following are links that the 'Narinjara' posted irresponsibly to instigate hatred against Muslims.

Sixteen year-old girl raped and murdered in Yanbye

Words used for instigation:

Raped near Kalar Village (Muslim Village)

Raped by three Kalars (Three Muslims)

Age of victims was wrong (Rushed reporting)

People of Yanbye protest for rape and murder victim

The following words are used repeatedly to sow the hatred against Muslims:

arrested Kalars ( Muslim youths):before rape and murder case villagers of Kalar ( Muslim village) always disturbs those who bypass the village. Combination with repeated usage of Muslim Kalar , instigated normally nonviolent people living together for many years to become violent thugs Tragic consequences: It was sad to hear that a woman was raped and murdered. But even before the police started the investigation, the culprit's identities were published together with their faith and religion (Islam/Muslim) and they were guilty even before the angry mobs, who were mostly Rakhine Buddhists.

Photos of the culprits were freely floating over Internet, journals, followed by uncensored comments which were full of hatred not only against alleged culprits but also to all Muslims of Myanmar, and even to the Prophet Mohammed and Islam.( I do not have sympathy to all accused and I wish death sentence for the criminals if they are found guilty, because the crime they allegedly committed caused eleven innocent lives.) This is obviously an instigation of hatred against Muslims of Myanmar also intentionally cooperated by other major news portals where the editors allowed all hate comments against Muslims of Myanmar with profanity. The worst comments were the insults to our Holy Prophet Muhammad ( PBUH) and to Islam. The main culprits were not only the 300 mobs who ruthlessly killed ten innocent Muslim travelers, but also the news portal Nirajana and associate news portal which instigated the hate crime against the Muslims of Myanmar. The article above is an official newspaper report of Taung Gote Massacre. The news added the salt upon the wounds of all Muslims of Myanmar by saying all the dead people were Muslim Kalars, which Ko Mya Aye, an 88-student leader said he was shocked to read the news in that manner. Later, the Ministry of Information apologized and corrected the news with the words, "Islam living in Myanmar. Even the government apologized and corrected the usage of 'Muslim Kalar'. The Narinjara news, News Portal should immediately apologize for their words of hatred.

Conclusion

I am writing this post only for the purpose of finding truth and justice. The Myanmar Government has formed an Independent commission to inform the findings and recommendation to the President before the end of this month. I found no Muslim representative in the commission. We need to monitor the purpose of forming this commission whether that is to justify and cover up the killing, or really transparent to prevent the same tragic event in future. The role of the media is very important in this kind of hate crimes against race and religion as Myanmar's current constitution clearly recognized freedom of worship of all faiths in the country. I hope those who are responsible directly and indirectly should be punished according to the law without fear or favor to prove the world that the Government and the people of Myanmar really love democracy and justice.
