Quran Verse Posted at Entrance Wall of Harvard

MV: Islam – all about equality and justice.

First read this verse from the Qur'an, then read the article bellow:

"O you who have believed, be persistently standing firm in justice, witnesses for Allah, even if it be against yourselves or parents and relatives. Whether one is rich or poor, Allah is more worthy of both. So follow not [personal] inclination, lest you not be just. And if you distort [your testimony] or refuse [to give it], then indeed Allah is ever, with what you do, Acquainted."

Faculty of law says verse is one of the greatest expressions for justice

The US Harvard University has posted a verse of the Holy Quran at the entrance of its faculty of law, describing the verse as one of the greatest expressions for justice in history, a Saudi newspaper reported on Sunday.

Verse 135 of Sura Al Nisa (women chapter) has been posted at a wall facing the faculty's main entrance, dedicated to the best phrases said about justice.

A Saudi student who studies at Harvard published a picture of the poster in his Twitter page, according to the Saudi Arabic language daily Ajel.

"I noticed that the verse was posted by the faculty of law, which described it as one of the greatest expressions for justice in history," Abdullah Jumma said.
